

I have enjoyed the peace and quiet brought on by Wisconsin's no call list. Just because I have a phone, why should I have to put up with annoying unwanted phone calls? There are restrictions on who can come to my door and bother me for business, why shouldn't there be limits on who can call. Please do not weaken our law.